

James Leonard (No. 724), of Taunton, Mass., married Margaret who died about 1701, and was the son of Thomas Leonard who remained in England.

James Leonard (No. 362) was born about 1643 and died Nov. 1, 1723. His first wife was Hannah who died Feb. 25, 1674, and he then married Oct. 29, 1675 Lydia Gulliver who died July 24, 1705. His third wife was Rebecca who died April 3, 1738. Hannah, daughter of James and Hannah, was born at Barnstable Oct. 2, 1671 and married John Crane (No. 180).

George Lewis (No. 856) was from East Greenwich in Kent, England, and arriving in America about 1633 went to Plymouth, then to Scituate and finally to Barnstable. He married his wife Sarah Jenkins in England.

Lieut. James Lewis (No. 428) was one of the Selectmen of Barnstable, and married Sarah Lane, daughter of George and Sarah, of Hingham.

Thomas Lincoln (No. 862 and 434) was from Wymondham, England, and the autumn of 1638 found him at Hingham, Mass. He married Margaret Langer, daughter of Richard. Their daughter Sarah was the wife of Thomas Marsh (No. 430).

Samuel Lincoln (No. 424 and 432) came from Hingham, Eng., and settled in Hingham, Mass. in 1637. He is known as "weaver" and "mariner." An early reference to him is found on a list of passengers registered to pass from Great Britain to New England to inhabit in 1637, and his age is given as eighteen.

Cornet Samuel Lincoln (No. 212) was member of the brave Capt. Johnson's military company in 1675-6 and participated as a cavalryman in the great Narraganset fight. In 1679 we find his name in a list of "footsoldiers of Hingham." He was a carpenter, by occupation.

Thomas Marriott or Marrett (No. 262) of Cambridge brought from England his wife Susannah and children.

George Marsh (No. 1720) with his wife Elizabeth was a resident of Norfolk county, England, and settled in Hingham, Mass. in 1635.

Thomas Marsh (No. 860), born in England, married in Hingham, Mass., in 1648, Sarah Beal, daughter of John and Nazareth (Hobart) Beal.

John Minot (No. 608 and 1930), called "John Minot the older," had a wife named Anne. He was son of Robert and Anne. Robert Minot was second son of John Minot of Springwell whose will was proved Dec. 18, 1542. He was the only son of William who was son of Thomas. Thomas Minot was from Saffron Walden, and married a daughter of Thomas de Hasildon whose wife was Joan, daughter of Sir Thomas de Burgh.

George Minot (No. 304 and 908), son of John, was baptized November 20, 1592 at Saffron Walden, Co. Essex, England, and his wife Martha died Dec. 23, 1657. He served as Rep. to the Gen. Court 1635-7 from Dorchester, where he was Ruling Elder in the church for thirty years. (For complete ancestry see Supplement to Chart VII).

Capt. John Minot (No. 152 and 484) of Dorchester, was born in England April 2, 1626. His title shows that he saw some military service.

Capt. James Minot (No. 76 and 242) of Dorchester removed to Concord and in 1689 was elected Captain of the Concord military company. He was Rep. to the Gen. Court 1635-7, taught the grammar school for some years, was preacher of the gospel and practiced medicine. His gravestone well summarizes his life: "Here is interred the